

PROGRAMME

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

The right to privacy: between constitutional and practical protection

May 22, 2017

Södertörn University, Stockholm/Huddinge

12-14:00 Session 1 ROOM ME 452
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Welcome and introduction</li> <li>• Using Tort Law to Protect Constitutional Rights in the UK: The Story of "Misuse of Private Information"</li> <li>• The constitutional right to respect for private life and the protection of personal data - A view from governmental practice in the Netherlands</li></ul>	Patricia Jonason, Assistant professor in Public Law, Södertörn University Gordon Anthony, Professor of Public Law in the School of Law, Queen's University Belfast Oswald Jansen, Professor in Public Law at the University of Maastricht

14:30- 16:30 Session 2 ROOM ME 004
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The Right to Privacy and the Right to Open Government: two antagonist constitutional rights?</li>   <li>• Enhancing democracy and the protection of privacy under the new Moroccan constitution</li>   <li>• Lutte contre le terrorisme et protection de la vie privée par le droit algérien</li>   <li>• The constitutional protection of privacy in Bulgaria</li>   <li>• The reinforcement of the constitutional protection of Privacy in Sweden</li> </ul>	William Gilles, Associate Professor (HDR) at the Sorbonne Law School , University Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne, President of IMODEV Jamal Machrouh, Professor in Law, University of Kenitra Nasreddine Bousmaha, Professeur à la Faculté de droit et des Sciences politiques, Oran University Maya Seltén, Assistant professor in public law, Södertörn University Patricia Jonason, Assistant professor in public law, Södertörn University
16.30-17:00 Insights from the day	Joint discussion